

Non-Profit Organization of the Year Award

Deadline: December 2

The Non-Profit Organization of the Year Award recognizes the outstanding achievements made by area nonprofit organizations. This prestigious award will be given to those who demonstrate leadership, vision, innovation and dedication to the Jefferson County Community.

Judging Criteria:

A panel of judges will independently score each of the nominations based on their written application.

Qualifications:

- ✓ Must be a member of the Madison Area Chamber of Commerce in good standing
- ✓ Had been a 501c organization for at least 3 years
- ✓ Has increased the image of the community as viewed on the local, state, or national level
- ✓ Has earned a high level of respect within the community
- ✓ Gives generously of themselves and /or staff in time and resources to the community
- ✓ Sustained achievement in fundraising and consistent financial performance
- ✓ Successful response to adversity
- ✓ Previous award recipients are not eligible for nomination

Please provide the following information:

Name of organization nominated:
Contact / Title:
Business Address:
Phone Number:

Name of Sponsor:
Home Address:
Email & Phone Number:
Relationship to organization:

How has this organization given back to the community? Please list programs, activities, or service.

What makes this organization stand out as a leader in Jefferson County?

What has the organization done to create a culture that is supportive of its employees or volunteers?

Please list evidence of fundraising and financial success, including challenges the organization has met.

Additional information you would like the selection committee to consider (use additional sheets if necessary):

The above information is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Name

Date