GUIDELINES FOR OUTSTANDING CITIZEN AWARD

THE AWARD

Each year, the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce will select an individual who has rendered significant service to the community to be honored with the William T. Harkins Outstanding Citizen Award. The award will be presented at the Annual Dinner Meeting of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce to be held in January of each year.

WILLIAM T. HARKINS

The award is named for William T. Harkins, former Pacific Gas and Electric Lodi Community Manager, who assumed the presidency of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce in 1964, during a period of serious economic crisis, restoring community confidence and economic stability to the Chamber, and setting the stage for its growth and development into an influential community organization.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

The individual will be selected by a five-person committee appointed by the Chairman of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce and shall consist of past recipients of the award. The selection shall be confidential until the time of the presentation.

QUALIFICATION FOR NOMINATION

The individual to be nominated for this award shall have been a resident for at least five years and must have made a significant volunteer public service contribution. To qualify for this award, the public service rendered by the nominee should consist of a variety of community activities, should not be job related, and must reflect a sincere dedication to the welfare and enhancement of the community and its citizens.
