Dear Mr. McNary and Mr. Kobly:

Thank you for your letter of congratulations on my recent appointment as Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Labour. I appreciate your thoughtfulness and support.

I welcome the challenges and possibilities of my new portfolio. My overarching goal will be to help Canadians get the skills they need for good quality jobs. I will work with provinces, territories, municipalities, the post-secondary education system, employers and labour organizations to strengthen our training systems to build the human capital that Canadians and employers need.

I appreciate your taking the time to share your organization's work to help businesses overcome challenges and prosper in their communities. I have taken note of your comments, and I have shared your correspondence with the appropriate departmental officials.

Please accept my best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
