

ACC BIOGRAPHY

Rosetta Taylor First Vice Chair 2018/19

Rosetta Taylor has years of progressive corporate experience in her background. Currently, Rosetta is the Manager of the ATB Financial Branch in Spruce Grove, Alberta, one of the busiest branches in the province. Her career in banking has spanned over 30 years. She is born and raised in Edmonton, Alberta and today resides in Spruce Grove, Alberta.

She has been honoured by ATB Financial with numerous awards such as quarterly awards recipient, a member of ATB Club Catalyst and Presidents League award winner. She takes great pride in running her branch as it is her very own business by leading, innovating, driving and motivating. Rosetta Taylor graduated at the University of Alberta receiving a Bachelor of Arts Degree majoring in Psychology.

Rosetta is a very proud mother of two fine young men, Zach Taylor and Josh Taylor, which she defines as her biggest accomplishment. She loves to cook, bake, shoe shop and watch hockey, especially watching her Edmonton Oilers. She a strong believer in community involvement and giving back whenever and wherever you can.

Rosetta has filled many positions with her local chamber of commerce and an ongoing community volunteer for many events and organizations. Her passion for building strong business relationships in banking has strengthened her expertise in building strong business relationships with the chamber and their tri municipal environment. She loves being the catalyst that collaborates with a range of individuals and businesses to get results and inspire positive change.

Updated May 2018