

Male & Female Youth of the Year

The Tulare Chamber of Commerce is accepting nominations for Male and Female Youth of the Year. The award will be presented at the Chamber's Annual Awards & Installation Banquet on Friday, January 25th. The award will be bestowed upon two high school seniors, one male and one female, who have demonstrated above average achievement in academics, community service, campus involvement, and leadership. Awardees will be given a $1000 scholarship to go towards furthering their education after high school. Nominees must attend a school within the Tulare Joint Union High School District or reside in Tulare.

Youth will be selected based on:

- School Involvement
- Community Involvement
- Leadership
- Academic Achievement
- Innovation (creation of special projects, ideas, or services)
- Achievement Despite Obstacles
- Any other items of notable mention

To nominate a student, please complete the nomination form. You may include up to three letters of recommendation as well as any documents that may support your nomination. The information you provide will be used by the Tulare Business and Education Council to determine the recipient of the award. Nominations may not be self submitted.

Nomination forms are available online at tularechamber.org. Nominations are due by November 16. Please call 686-1547 or email darcy@tularechamber for more information.

Please mail or deliver nomination packets by November 16 to:
