MASTERING YOUR MEMORY

with Craig Krause of

Direct Development

TRAINING

SPECIFIC • ACCESSIBLE • ATTAINABLE

This fun and highly engaging training program will have you laughing, and surprised -- doing things you never thought you could do!

Learn techniques, and more importantly, the applications of memory skills to enhance all you do, professionally and personally. Train your memory to recall any information you need to remember.

9 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 13

(location TBD depending on class size)

HOW WILL IT BENEFIT YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS?

- Increase overall memory skills
- Instantly recall names
- Remembering sales-processes and company information
- Learn to recall lists forward and backwards
- Lead meeting and give presentations without written notes
- Improve credibility and get more referrals

ONLY $20

for employees of Chamber member businesses ($40 for non-members) includes a light lunch. Must be paid in advance.

Chamber News & Calendar

Ribbon Cutting

Family and friends joined sisters Carolyn and Stacy Danek to celebrate the ribbon cutting for their business A Maker's Place on March 30. This new business lets its customers create signs using their very own, personalized designs. But there's no need to fear, their process ensures that you have a professional looking product at the end of your sign painting session. And, yes, private workshops are available. They are located at 119 E. Third St. Contact them by phone at 817-789-7146 or by email at workshop@makersplace.org . Learn more about this great new Taylor business at <http://www.makersplace.org/about-us.html>

Business of the Month

The Chamber and its Ambassadors named the Taylor Press as the March Business of the Month. The Press and Publisher Jason Hennington were nominated for their "commitment to local news. Whether it is breaking news on a house fire, covering our local sports, city council, and supporting practically every fund raiser in Taylor, Taylor Press is there for us."
