Meet the finalists for Taylor City Manager

David Harris

Chuck Ewings

Bret Bauer

Brian LaBorde

Taylor City Council invites the public to participate in a Community Meeting to meet and greet the four finalists for Taylor City Manager.

When: Monday, April 1 at 6 p.m.

Where: McCrory Timmerman Building

A message from your Chamber

We have LOTS going on in Taylor right now. Join us at 2 p.m. Saturday for fun and games at the ribbon cutting at A Maker's Place, 119 E. Third St. (between Ricoco's and SRSLY Chocolate). You'll enjoy getting to know more about this new business. It's a great addition to our community.

Then grab your business cards and bring a friend to the Chamber's Networking After Hours 4-6 p.m. Tuesday, April 16 at City National Bank, 212 N. Main St. It's come and go so there's no reason to miss!

A few days before THAT, we have our Mastering Your Memory class. There's more information about that below but sign up today with an email to info@taylorchamber.org with your name, contact information and whether or not your employer or business is a Chamber member and we'll get you signed up.

For the civic minded, we have a chance to meet our City Manager finalists at 6 p.m. Monday at the McCrory-Timmerman Building. Then the next week, on April 8, the Chamber and Taylor Press are hosting a candidate forum for the residents of District 1 who are electing a new city council representative in May.

And that doesn't EVEN include the Casino Night, Rotary Golf Tournament, the official opening of Heritage Square Park, Community Clean-Up Day, Veteran's Beer Run, Easter events galore, Lions Golf Tournament, St. Mary's Spring Fling and ALL the other fun things.

Yep! At this time of year, there's no excuse for being bored!

MASTERING YOUR MEMORY

TRAINING

SPECIFIC • ACCESSIBLE • ATTAINABLE

This fun and highly engaging training program will have you laughing, and surprised -- doing things you never thought you could do!

Learn techniques, and more importantly, the applications of memory skills to enhance all you do, professionally and personally. Train your memory to recall any information you need to remember.

9 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 13

(location TBD depending on class size)

HOW WILL IT BENEFIT YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS?

- Increase overall memory skills
- Instantly recall names
- Remembering sales-processes and company information
- Learn to recall lists forward and backwards
- Lead meeting and give presentations without written notes
- Improve credibility and get more referrals

ONLY $20

for employees of Chamber member businesses ($40 for non-members) includes a light lunch. Must be paid in advance.

Chamber News & Calendar

Ribbon Cutting

Greg and Rhonda Redden celebrated the ribbon cutting for their new business A Veteran Storage, 2900 CR 369, on March 20. Members of the Greater Taylor Chamber of Commerce learned that this new RV and boat storage facility has great security and easy access. In honor of their past careers and of those who serve, the company offers a 10 percent discount to military veterans and first responders. Learn more about them at www.avaxstorage.com or call 512-592-8612.
