Perspectives Training and Consulting, LLC
President

As President of Perspectives Training and Consulting, LLC, Bridget Wenman works to form a true partnership with her clients. It is her goal to help them most effectively utilize their most valuable asset, their human capital. Having extensive experience with professional assessments and a strong business background gives her a unique perspective in providing solutions for her clients. Bridget loves that each of her clients has a unique set of circumstances, challenges and goals and she works to become an integral part of their team.

After a successful career in sales and management in the staffing industry, Bridget created Perspectives Training and Consulting, a management consulting business that she has owned and operated for 21 years. Her primary focus is to help her clients achieve success through Executive Coaching and the effective design and management of their workforce. She uses a wide variety of solutions to help them define their culture, refine their workforce and increase productivity. The ability to provide her clients with keen insight in understanding themselves and those around them in a safe and fun atmosphere was a strong factor in her success. As a Vistage Chair, she facilitates three highly collaborative CEO/Senior Executive Peer Advisory Groups in the Central Wisconsin Area, providing her members coaching in addition to access to the largest CEO Network in the world.

She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Communication and minor in Public Speaking from the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh.

Bridget resides in Central Wisconsin with her husband and 4 children. She is passionate about giving back to her community and serves on several local Boards including the United Way, the Executive Committee for Junior Achievement and the Boy Scouts of America. She has been a Keynote Speaker, Emcee and Expert Panelist for the Emerging Leaders Group and Executive Women's group at her local Chamber of Commerce. She is Chairperson of the Champions of Business Annual Dinner which recognizes leaders in her community and is a major annual fundraiser for Junior Achievement. She was honored in 2017 for her community service work and business acumen with the Athena Award for Leadership.
