The Palo Alto Auxiliary for Children is a volunteer organization that has been raising funds for over eighty years to benefit Lucile Packard Children's Hospital, one of the nation's leading children's hospitals. The Palo Alto Auxiliary's Restaurants with Heart is a monthly dining program that features a different restaurant each month, January through November. If you enjoy dining out and trying restaurants new to you, or are a member of a group of friends who enjoy dining out together, please join us for Restaurants with Heart dining events. There are no speeches or appeals for money; it is just a night out to enjoy delicious cuisine for the benefit of children.
