Augusta Regional Chamber Announces 2019 Business Excellence Awards Winners

Fishersville, March 8, 2019– As the premier business organization for the area serving Staunton, Augusta County, and Waynesboro, the Greater Augusta Regional Chamber represents over 600 diverse businesses that work together to stimulate the economy for this outstanding community. The overall makeup of a community starts with people and their personal dreams to make an impact on the world around them. Through the Business Excellence Awards, the Chamber is able to recognize the outstanding success of exemplary businesses and individual leaders who are indeed having an impact on their Community.

Annette Medlin, President and CEO of the Chamber said “It was very positive reinforcement of all the great work our local businesses are doing when during the award nomination review our winners were referred to with the words ‘innovative, visionary, strategic, mentor, dedicated, charitable, humility’. This pattern emphasizes the quality of business leaders we have here in the Augusta County region.”

The Chamber is very proud to announce the winners of the 2019 Business Excellence Awards:

- Small Business Excellence Award: KK Homes
- Large Business Excellence Award: NIBCO of Virginia
- Woman-Owned Business Excellence Award: The Queen Bean
- Non-profit Excellence Award: Heifetz International Music Institute
- Young Professional Award: Theresa Hoffman
- Community Leadership Award: Richard P. “Dickie” Bell

The Chamber will honor each of these winners and deliver its year in review at the Annual Meeting and Business Excellence Awards on March 21st at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel & Conference Center. This event will be a celebration of excellence in business in our Greater Augusta region. For more information about the winners or the event contact Kim Wilbur, kim@augustava.com.
