What's Your Superpower? Women of Influence Network 2019 Power Summit

Fishersville, April 10, 2019 - Putting a powerful group of women together for half a day of sharing insights and exchanging ideas adds up to empowerment!! The Women of Influence Network Summit is for women at all levels of personal and career development. The Summit includes an inspiring keynote speaker, sessions covering topics that are designed to help women succeed, resource exhibitors and lots of targeted networking.

The WIN Summit will take place at Mary Baldwin University on Tuesday, April 23rd from 8:00 am - 1:00 pm. session highlights include:

- Keynote presentation: Strengths Discovery is Step #1 to Becoming a Superhero! Jason Boron, Owner, Leading Strong
- Finding Your Brand Style; Aimee Rose, VP of Integrated Communications & Chief Strategy Officer, Mary Baldwin University
- Women in Leadership Chat; Annette Medlin with special guest Sharon Johnson, Chief Executive Officer, Shenandoah Valley Workforce Development Board.

In addition to these highlights, attendees will spend time in a networking table topics session and be able to gain access to valuable resources from exhibitors. This is a powerful event designed for women, but their allies are welcome to attend as well!!! We guarantee a day that sends attendees away feeling empowered, encouraged and supported. Registrations are still available by visiting our GARCC website or call Kim at 540-324-1133.
