

I LIKE TO ALIGN MY BRAND WITH COMMUNITY

So often our members tell us that being engaged with the Chamber helps them engage with their community. We know that what we do for our members ends up having a broader impact on the entire community. The “plus” component for you may be to align with programs and events that have the biggest community message.

Education Appreciation Breakfast and Expo

Event Details:

July 23, 2019

8:30-10:00 am

Augusta Expo

Approximate attendance: 500

This celebratory, high energy event is designed to welcome educators and education staff back to school and share products and resources that can be of value to them personally and professionally. The event gives the Chamber an opportunity to say thanks to those that prepare, support, and nurture the workforce of the future! The event is open to employees of our education community including staff and educators from all public schools and private schools in Staunton, Augusta County and Waynesboro, Blue Ridge Community College and Mary Baldwin University.
