

Aging in Place

In plain English, Aging-in-Place means remaining in one's home safely, independently, and comfortably, regardless of age, income, or ability level.

It means the pleasure of living in a familiar environment throughout the years, and the ability to enjoy the familiar daily rituals and the special events that enrich all our lives.

It means the reassurance of being able to call a house a "home" for a lifetime.

Feel free to contact the executive committee for:

- Additional Information
- Questions
- Suggestions
- If you would like to help the committee

Committee

Emily Anderson
eanderson@thelegacyatnorthaugusta.org

Lee Croteau
lcroteau@vbsmortgage.com

Chamber Representative
Hannah Cooper
hannah@augustava.com

Contest Coordinator
Kevin Hitt
khitt@interimhealthcare.com

Business Card Wrangler
Mary Ann Stripling
maryann@maryannstripling.com

IT Support
Eric Barkey
Trust.Services@BarkeyFinancial.com

Gracious Hosts
Brightview Baldwin Park
mbradley@bvsl.net

The Legacy at North Augusta fsundeen@thelegacyatnorthaugusta.org

augustaseniors.org

A networking group comprised of local businesses, community members, healthcare providers, and families who work together to help seniors age in place.

Advocate. Educate. Network. Support.

*"The quality, not the longevity, of one's life is what is important."
-Martin Luther King Jr.*

Mission Statement >>>>

The GARCC Aging in Place Round Table seeks to educate the community about local services supporting vitality and choice in the second half of life, and provides a forum for discussion and collaboration about the issues surrounding aging in place.

Vision >>>>

Aging in Place is defined as "the ability to live in one's own home and community safely, independently, and comfortably, regardless of age, income, or ability level." Our purpose is to find solutions for aging in place by connecting families with qualified and trustworthy professionals.

About >>>>

The Greater Augusta Regional Chamber of Commerce's Aging in Place Round Table is a networking group comprised of local businesses, community members, healthcare providers, and families who work together to help seniors age in place.

Goals >>>>

Our goal is to advocate for seniors, educate the community, network with senior resources and support seniors, the community, and one another.

Advantages of Membership

- The chance to meet others who care an interest in issues of aging in place
- Free marketing opportunities including networking with other members, business card exchange, member spotlights, mentions in the round table newsletter, website, and social media
- Educational presentations from experts in fields associated with aging in place
- Leadership opportunities within the round table and Chamber of Commerce

Become a Member

- Be a member in good-standing with the Greater Augusta Regional Chamber of Commerce and abide by its code of conduct
- Attend at least three meetings within six months
- Present a brief member spotlight about your business or professional services
- Attend at least one monthly meeting every six months to maintain membership

Meetings >>>>

The GARCC Aging in Place Round Table meets every 2nd Friday at 9:00am at Baldwin Park (odd months) and The Legacy at North Augusta (even months) in Staunton.