2.) Explain what you hope to gain from your participation in the Leadership Troy Program.

INTERNSHIP/RESEARCH PAPER REQUIREMENT

Included as part of the Leadership Troy experience is the requirement to complete one of the following experiences:

INTERNSHIP on a local COMMUNITY SERVICE BOARD from March through September. If chosen to be a participant in Leadership Troy and you choose an INTERNSHIP, you will be given an opportunity to pick your first, second and third internship choices from a supplied list of available boards. You will also be given dates and times of regular board meetings so your selection can appropriately fit your schedule.

RESEARCH PAPER in a team effort of three or four individuals on a timely community topic. If chosen to be a participant in Leadership Troy and you choose a RESEARCH PAPER, you will be teamed with other participants to do a research paper on a topic selected by your team. Suggestions of topic ideas can be provided by the Troy Area Chamber of Commerce.

ACTION TEAM PROJECT in a group effort of three or four individuals working on a project (not a research paper) that will benefit the community. If chosen to be a participant in Leadership Troy and you choose an ACTION TEAM PROJECT, you will be teamed with other participants to work and complete a project which will benefit the community. You and your team will select your own project.

After reviewing the selections of the Leadership Troy participants, research paper, internship or project assignments will be made. We ask that you state your preference below. The Troy Area Chamber of Commerce/Leadership Troy reserves the right to cancel any of the options if there is not sufficient interest.
