

GREATER HAMILTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

CERTIFICATE OF ORIGIN PROCESS

The following information is provided to answer questions that you may have regarding certificates of origin, their purpose and how to obtain certification. It also explains the steps needed in order for the Greater Hamilton Chamber of Commerce to complete this certification.

- A Certificate of Origin is a document certifying that goods being exported were manufactured in a particular country. It usually accompanies the exporter's/shipper's invoice or the Bill of Lading and is required by most countries. Whenever certificates of origin are requested of United States manufacturers, they usually apply to countries in which the U.S. has a special trade relationship/agreement and countries in which U.S. products are favored by lower than usual tariff rates or duties (i.e., NAFTA).
- A Certificate of Origin and Affidavit may be obtained from the Greater Hamilton Chamber of Commerce office or on our website at www.hamilton-ohio.com, click on the Membership tab, Membership Benefits tab and Certificate of Origin Process.
