

Tuesday, March 24, 2020

Small Business Administration Resources Webinar

Briefing and Q&A on Disaster Relief for Small Businesses

Over the past several weeks, I have been in communication with many local small businesses, discussing their ability to operate amidst the devastating effects coronavirus has taken on every facet of commerce. Please know, I remain engaged on this rapidly evolving issue and am working to provide needed resources to our local businesses during this critical time.

With that in mind, I invite Collin County small businesses to take part in an important video conference webinar I am hosting this Wednesday, March 25, 2020 at 2:00 PM CST with our regional representative from the Small Business Administration. During this call the we will provide up-to-date information on the application process and take questions and feedback from participants.

In order to to accommodate those interested in participating online, small businesses owners in Texas' Third Congressional District who are interested in participating should RSVP prior to the event by registering at the button below. After receiving your RSVP, we will email you credentials and instructions for the video conference webinar.

Event Details

Date: Wednesday, March 25, 2020

Time: 2:00 PM CST

What: Webinar on Resources from the Small Business Administration

Instructions: Instructions will be provided via email the morning of Wednesday, March 25, 2020

Questions: Contact my office at (972) 202-4150

RSVP: On at VanTaylor.house.gov

I also encourage business owners to visit the Small Business Resources portal on my website for additional information.

Our local small businesses are critical to our local economy, and I firmly believe if we pull together, we will navigate this difficult time and emerge stronger. Please know my office stands ready to serve as a resource. Additionally, if there are additional ways in which I can assist you, please reach out to my office at (972) 202-4150.

Semper Fidelis,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Van Taylor". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent flourish at the end of the word "Taylor".

Van Taylor
Member of Congress