

Affiliated Representative/Individual Member / Associate Member

$200 Annual Membership Investment

This membership level is only available to representatives of a business that is already a member of the Chamber (ex. real estate agents, financial advisors, stockbrokers, independent distributors).

This membership level is also available to retired individuals who are no longer actively working in a business and elected officials.

This level gives the affiliated representative/associate member great visibility, exposure, and access through our marketing efforts, print and web advertising, networking and more.

- List your name in our membership directory and on our website directory
- Membership listing in one business category
- Authorization to use the chamber logo in your advertising
- Receive weekly email communication with timely information to help your business
- Access to the “Members Only” section of our website
- Recognition in E-Newsletter, Facebook, Twitter, Board of Directors meeting and www.oakridgechamber.org upon joining or renewing
- Marketing and sponsorship opportunities through our publications and events
- Opportunity to purchase member mailing contact information (no email addresses)
- Invitation to “Chamber 101” member orientation to learn how to best utilize your Chamber
- Inclusion in the Chamber’s member referral program
- Networking opportunities including monthly Rise & Shine breakfast meetings, Program of Work Kickoff, Primetime, and numerous other events and programs
- Usage of Chamber facilities (including audio/visual equipment) at member pricing (subject to availability and board approved policies)
- Member pricing and rates for Chamber events

Benefits not available for political advertising or election campaigns.

If company chooses not to join, individual must join at Business Builder tier for $400.