

McFarland Chamber of Commerce Code of Conduct

Members of the McFarland Chamber of Commerce recognize membership is a privilege and agree to abide by the following code of conduct:

- Members and their appointed representative(s) will conduct business and professional activities in a reputable and ethical manner which reflects positively on the McFarland-area business community and McFarland Chamber of Commerce.
- Members and their appointed representative(s) will respect the reputation and status of the McFarland Chamber of Commerce, fellow chamber members, and the McFarland-area business community and refrain from publicly disparaging their business practices.
- Members and their appointed representative(s) will support and promote the Mission of the McFarland Chamber of Commerce and cooperate with fellow members in the application of this code of conduct.

For the protection of the Chamber's business interests and reputation, the McFarland Chamber Board of Directors has the right to address any conduct found to negatively reflect upon the McFarland Chamber of Commerce. This may result in action(s) taken, up to and including revocation of membership.
