

Economic Development Council of Livingston County &
Ann Arbor SPARK

Livingston County's EDC is a non-profit agency dedicated to creating economic opportunities in harmony with the high quality of life and unique characteristics of Livingston County. The EDC is a one-stop resource for companies seeking to grow or locate in Livingston County. Services range from employee attraction, retention and training, employee transportation and housing, industrial site location assistance, and financial incentives, such as tax abatements. The Economic Development Council of Livingston County has contracted with Ann Arbor SPARK for Economic Development Services in Livingston County.

Scott Griffith, Chairman
EDC Livingston County

Phil Santer, Vice President
Business Development
Ann Arbor SPARK