

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

Outstanding Chamber Person of the Year

Nomination Deadline: November 17, 2017

The Chamber Person of the Year Award is designed to recognize and show appreciation to the Chamber Member who exemplifies service to the community and the Chamber. The nominee should be an individual, not a business. The nominee's business must be a Charles County Chamber Member in good standing. The nomination must come from outside the nominee's own organization. Officials responsible for this award are not eligible for nomination.

Please take a moment and write a brief statement or letter of nomination that conveys your reasons for nominating this person for the Award. NOTE: Please make specific comments to the best of your ability and knowledge. You MUST utilize each point of interest listed below. You may expand your nomination to include other areas of interest in your nomination statement/letter. Feel free to contact the Chamber staff for questions or concerns about this form or assistance with your nomination.
