Together we can show our pride in Charles County! Whether you have a local business, residence (or both!) the Chamber of Commerce will make it possible for YOU to join in our celebration of Charles County starting in October 2016!

You will receive the following:

- All will receive a flag or sign to display on your property (your choice for the item that works best for your property).
- Business sponsors will receive Bumper Stickers that can be shared with customers.
- Sponsor logos will appear in a full page ad in the Maryland Independent; individual private residence sponsors will be listed by individual or family name (ex. "John Smith" or "The John Smith Family").
- A link will be established from the Chamber Website to the Charles County Proud information page where sponsors will also be listed.

Please complete the following information and submit it to the Chamber of Commerce by September 1st.
