

it only works

if you wear it

Face coverings are required when patronizing a business

Who does this apply to?

- Working in or patronizing a Businesses
- Shopping for necessary supplies and services or visiting a healthcare professional
- Riding in public transportation, taxis, or ride shares

When is a face covering not required?

- Engaging in outdoor, recreational physical activity while observing a physical distance of at least six feet from others
- Riding in personal vehicles
- Remaining at home or in a similar private space, alone or with members of the same household

Questions?

- Visit www.deerfield.il.us/COVID-19
- Call: 847-945-5000
- Email: dfitzgerald@deerfield.il.us