Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your submission for the Paso Robles Chamber of Commerce Women In Business Commitment to Community Scholarship Program. According to its mission statement: “The Paso Robles Chamber of Commerce Women in Business (WIB) promotes opportunities for personal and professional growth through networking and business and educational programs that feature relevant topics in a positive environment.” The scholarship fund was established to encourage both youths and adults returning to school to strive for academic excellence and to return to the community with leadership skills that will promote economic vitality.

The Scholarship Committee is composed of members of the Paso Robles Chamber of Commerce Women In Business Committee. This Committee reserves the right to award scholarships to the most overall qualified applicant based on any or all of the selection criteria. Financial need will not be a factor in the selection process. Both men and women are invited to apply. In addition, the committee will not have access to the names or other personal information regarding the applicants during the application review. The decision of the committee is final. Completing this application does not guarantee you a scholarship. Those awarded scholarships must consent to allow the Chamber of Commerce or its representatives to use their name or photograph without notification or compensation to the recipient. You will be notified if you have been selected to receive an award.
