

St. John's Board of Trade Code of Conduct and Ethics

Introduction

The St. John's Board of Trade recognizes that membership carries with it duties and responsibilities. This Code of Conduct and Ethics outlines those duties and responsibilities of all members.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

As a member of the St. John's Board of Trade I/we recognize that membership is a privilege and that a membership brings with it the responsibility to assure that all members also understand and commit to the following conduct and ethics

Accordingly, I/we undertake to:

1. Conduct all business and professional activities in a reputable manner so as to reflect honourably upon the St. John's business community
2. Respect the good reputation, profile and status of the St. John's Board of Trade and represent it accordingly.
3. Abide by the constitution and by-laws of the St. John's Board of Trade.
4. Provide honest, skilled and conscientious service to customers.
5. Present a true representation in all advertising. Goods and services shall be advertised in accordance with all municipal, provincial and federal legislation.
6. Conform to all laws established by municipal, provincial and federal governments for the conduct of business.
7. Ensure their workplace/business is harassment free and is a safe environment for all employees/customers.

As a member of the St. John's Board of Trade I/we also recognize that the Board of Directors of the St. John's Board of Trade reserves the right to discontinue or temporarily suspend membership with any member of the St. John's Board of Trade if they are in violation of the Code of Conduct and Ethics in accordance with by-law 17 of the St. John's Board of Trade by-laws.
