

BLAIRSVILLE - UNION COUNTY ITINERARY

Girls Day Out

Take a Yoga Class

Start your day off right at one of several fitness centers offering a variety of classes and various levels of experience.

Make it a Spa Day

Whether you are looking for massages, manicures, pedicures, or facials, we have it all! Choose from a number of local spas offering first class relaxation facilities.

Take a Wine Tour

North Georgia is known for its fabulous wine selection. Visit the tasting rooms of our local wineries or make a day of it and explore each of the 10+ area wineries, vineyards, and tasting rooms.

Taste the Mountains

Made from scratch donuts and pastries, farm to table menu selections, and the best coffee bar in the mountains can all be found right here in Blairsville-Union County. Plan to dine in our quaint restaurants or grab it to go and head out for a picnic. Stop by the Welcome Center to pick up your Dining Guide (129 Union County Recreation Road / 706-745-5789).

Shop Till You Drop

Blairsville-Union County is home to the 22 mile Artisan Corridor of arts and craft shops, galleries, and boutiques. Here you'll find unique gift items, one of a kind shopping, tasty treats, and more! Stop by the Welcome Center to pick up your Shopping Guide (129 Union County Recreation Road / 706-745-5789).

Tour the Gardens

Ladies love spending time at the Georgia Mountain Research & Education Center where you will tour their beautiful Appalachian Ethnobotanical Garden and walk the Woodland Medicine Trail (195 GA. Mtn. Exp. Station Road /706-745-2655).

Let Your Creative Juices Flow

The arts are alive and well in Blairsville-Union County. Check out the kinetic sculptures at Meeks Park, part of the Appalachian Sculpture Project, visit one of our local galleries to see the handiwork of our artisans, or bring your camera and capture the beauty of our landscape.