Q3

Why are you running for elected office?

Inspired by Bertha Landes, who almost 100 years ago, vowed to clean the government as one of the 1st women to serve as council member & 1st woman to serve as Mayor of Seattle. With that said, I ran for Mayor of Seattle in 2017 & now I am running for Seatac Council Member PO 2. During the pandemic I experienced a traumatizing miscarriage of justice in the City of Seatac. All parties involved were Police Officer Brian Taylor, Prosecutor Abraham Ritter, & Judge Robert Hamilton. They caused & allowed criminals to take over my entire house while restraining me from it. During an inheritance dispute the property went up for sale with a redemption period because these entities denied my rights to Equal Protection of Law & Due Process, now I have to make this public. No more Silence. I am the voice they tried to take, but they can't break. No more holding back! This caused my son & I to become homeless & separated.

Q4

What do you consider to be our community's top challenges?

As a writer working with the community for me, the community's top challenge is the clerical errors in "Equal Opportunity Policy" pertaining to our political, judicial, and economic system. Community voting the right people in positions can accomplish fixing this. When in position, 1st together we will start by rewriting the laws, applications, processes, procedures, and policies that Violate all Civil Rights Acts pertaining to oppression, housing, homelessness, and mental health crisis, miscarriage of justice, murders in our communities, immediate end to police brutality, and crime. We're only as good as our weakest link and that is still homelessness. The root cause of our Housing, Homelessness, and Mental health and illness crisis stems from the errors I just mentioned, especially in the most suffocated community members and abroad. This is an "EVOLUTION" for All people. Providing more Power to the People. P.P.P

How will you work with the business community to find solutions?

You deserve a leader that cares more about serving you as citizens and business owners than just being elected or re-elected at city hall that will work with businesses and organizations, instead of against them. My professional experience comes from being a business owner that works directly with other businesses and organizations to build economic growth and development towards financial wealth and independence for generations to come, not just the next 5-10 years. There is a way to become more independent as a business without dependence on the government. I can show you better than I can tell you. We cannot continue building off of the backs of suffocating communities. What progressive revenue solutions will I fight to enact? The "Fair" for all approach. Or the "FAIR" Act. There is a way that all parties can sit around a table and come to a common ground that is "fair". It has to be inclusive. We're going to be the voices.
