Next, transfer to the airport to catch our flight to Hanoi. (B/D)
Overnight: The Light Hotel

MARCH 1: HANOI CITY TOUR

The limestone karsts formations are littered with beaches, grottoes, and beautiful caves. Overnight: Bhaya Cruise

MARCH 3: HALONG BAY & HANOI

MARCH 5: SIEM REAP & ANGKOR TOURS

This morning, we will get up early and take tuk-tuks to the Angkor Wat Temple. Angkor Wat Temple is what remains of a disappeared civilization, which between the 8th and 13th century built this splendid temple. It was then partially annihilated by an invasion and hidden for centuries amongst the forest. Dawn is one of the most beautiful and haunting times to visit the temple, whose ancient sandstone blocks are gilded gold by the early morning rays. Afterwards, we will return to the hotel for breakfast and the afternoon at your leisure. Later this afternoon visit the jungle-entwined temple of Ta Prohm. Then, we will visit Angkor Thom (the Great City) including the Southern Gate. Choose to watch the sunset from the romantic setting of Phnom Bakeng hilltop or Pre Rup temple. We will then return to town for a well-earned hour foot massage. Enjoy dinner with a traditional Apsara dance show. (B/L/D)
Overnight: Empress Residence Resort

MARCH 6: SIEM REAP, TONLE SAP LAKE, & DEPARTURE

After breakfast, visit the town of Pour Krom and walk through this lovely village experiencing local life. Enjoy an ox cart ride before transferring to Chong Knies villages to take a traditional wooden boat ride on the Tonle Sap Lake, the "Great Lake" of Cambodia. It is one of the largest in Asia and is where you can find schools, restaurants, and hospitals. Next, visit Les Artisans D'Angkor for shopping. Then, we travel back to town to explore Psar Chass, also known as the "Old Market". Enjoy your farewell dinner before transferring to the airport for the flight back to Canada. (B/L/D)
