DAY 1

AFTERNOON

- As you make your way through Rhinelander, stop at the Visitors Center for travel info and ATV maps. While you are there, make sure to visit with the world famous Hodag.
- Head to one of our area campgrounds and set up camp, whether you are looking for a site along the water, woods, or trail.
- Unhitch the trailer and drive to dinner.

EVENING

- Enjoy a tasty dinner at one of our many local watering holes such as Bucketheads or Pat's Tavern and Grill.
- Stay for the good company and a few cocktails.

DAY 2

MORNING

- Hit the enterprise ATV Trail System or the Lynne/Little Rice Lake ATV Trail System, each offering miles of riding fun.
- Stop along the way for a picnic and enjoy the beauty of the Northwoods.

AFTERNOON

- Cool off with some jet skiing or water skiing on one of Rhinelander's dozens of area lakes—if you need to rent your gear head over to Shoeder's RV and Marine.
- Bask in the sun on the sandy beach at Hodag Park along the shores of Boom Lake.

EVENING

- Have a dinner at Hodag Steakhouse or Rocky's Roadhouse or Three Coins Restaurant.
- Stop and bowl a few games at Hodag Lanes, or wet your whistle at a local watering hole and listen to some live music. Find options on the Chamber Community Calendar.
- End the evening discussing the day adventures and sharing stories around the campfire.

DAY 3

- Grab breakfast at Friendship House Restaurant or Rhinelander Café & Pub.
- Head back to camp and load up the trailer. Head home with lots of Rhinelander stories. .
