Since 1959, the Monterey Peninsula has come together to celebrate California's official state vegetable. California's artichoke history begins in 1922 when the first artichoke shoots were planted in Castroville. The annual Castroville Artichoke Festival began in 1959 as a harvest festival to celebrate the iconic artichoke.

NATIONAL VOLUNTEERS WEEK APRIL 7-13, 2019

The Monterey Herald and Santa Cruz Sentinel will produce our annual THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS
section on

Monday, April 8th

This is a great opportunity to THANK volunteers by name, by group, recognize a volunteer of the year or call out for more volunteer time in 2019. It's a perfect way to show the community how your organization gives back and thrives through the work of volunteers. We're proud to support this section to motivate the community!
