Books Under the Tree Campaign

Our GOAL is to collect one new storybook for every child whose family is receiving a Christmas hamper.

Help make this program possible!

A donation of $10 would cover the cost of most children's books. We will need approximately $2000 to gift one book to every child.

President's Message

Sharon and I returned Monday from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce AGM & Policy Sessions in Thunder Bay. The quality of the policy work this year was incredible!

Our Chamber Federation continues to produce policies to ensure our SME's and Corporations are dealt with fairly by all levels of government.

The educational component of the conference was also excellent. Adam Legge's "Making Remarkable" session was inspirational. It's a leadership roadmap of practical application of remarkable thinking and strategy.

The Calgary Chamber of Commerce has developed a free tool to support Business Disaster Preparedness & Insurance Literacy in our communities. www.IBC.DiagnosticRocket.com

Why do we exist? While waiting for our return flight at the airport, Erin Brush Duncan, a staff member of the Ft. Saskatchewan Chamber summed it up.

Why? As in Why do we exist? We are a resource, a voice, and a community for business.

Why? As in Why are we needed? It goes back to the analogy of the rope and the single strand.

A single strand is weak; it can fray, snap, break, blow away in the wind. A single business without support is likely to fail.

A rope is strong, it cannot be broken, it can actually hold other things down from blowing in the wind.

A Chamber unites businesses. Their concerns and needs are voiced louder and with more impact as a unit.

By supporting each other through procuring and purchasing local, through mentorship, through problem-solving, and through united efforts to better the community, they are more likely to thrive themselves.

It's Why I love a business community growing a community for business. works.

Julie Girard
President
