

Anastasia is the Clubhouse Manager at Calabasas Country Club. She has over 20 years in the high end hospitality/fitness industry holding positions ranging from General Manager to Area Vice President. She has authored and administered training courses on Customer Service and is committed to not meeting but exceeding the expectations of the CCC Members. She has been an advocate for community growth for 15 years, serving on various Chamber and non-profit boards. When she is not at the Club she teaches spin classes, volunteers at animal rescues or spends time at home in Ventura with her 2 Chihuahuas.
