

Raychel Harrison has over 22 years' experience as a professional, conscientious, award-winning celebrity hairstylist and entrepreneur. Raychel's focus as a salon owner is to enhance and support the beauty industry, creating more credibility hairstylists and beauty professionals.

Her love affair with all things hair began from her teenage years and has carried her through an extensive and exhilarating journey. Under her mentorship and training with industry icon Robert Cromeans (Global Artistic Director for John Paul Mitchell Systems – JPMS), Stephanie Kocielski, Kelly Cardenas, Angus Mitchell and D.J Muldoon, Raychel traveled the country as a National Platform Artist providing advanced education to hairdressers with the JPMS show team. Raychel continued her journey of education at The Vidal Sassoon Academy, learning to cut hair the Sassoon way.

Raychel has specialized expertise in cuts, colors and hair extensions, and has passed one of the most rigorous examinations of hair color proficiency in the industry; earning her certification as an American Board-Certified Hair Colorist.

Armed with expert coloring and haircutting knowledge, Raychel became certified in cold fusion hair extensions, and is known today for her unique ability to transform her client's hair with effortless looks that appeal to their lifestyles.

Raychel has won numerous awards for her excellence in hair artistry, along with her business acumen, leadership and vision. Where most hair salons operate with the booth rental model, or salon suites, Raychel is succeeding with her belief that teamwork trumps all. A few of the awards won by Raychel include 'The San Fernando Valley Business Review Journal's 'Rising Star' winner, in addition to being named as a 'Top 20 CEO'S under 40' for a respected beauty trade. Raychel has giving back to the community extensively, and is a Board Director with the Calabasas Chamber of Commerce
