Re: Celebrate the Culture of Grape-Growing and Wine-Making with the Chamber!

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will host its Lubbock Uncorked wine festival presented by Market Street on Fri., April 27 from 4-9 p.m. at the American Windmill Museum.

Those who attend Lubbock Uncorked will get to taste wine made from grapes grown right here on the high plains, along with tastings offered by wineries from all over the state. Don't worry if you aren't a wine drinker, we will have craft beers as well.

There will also be food trucks and restaurants offering a variety of food from local restaurants and catering companies. A great lineup of local entertainment will also highlight the festival.

Also, make plans to attend "Experience Texas" a wine and food pairing class during Lubbock Uncorked from 6 – 7:30 p.m., hosted by Chef Tony Pina of Farm to Fork Gastro Truck inside the American Windmill Museum.

Chef Pina will present dishes for tasting using the best of Texas products paired with some of the best wine Texas has to offer. Tickets for the class are $40, which will include plenty of food and wine for the tasting, and must be purchased in conjunction with a Lubbock Uncorked ticket.

Advanced tickets for Lubbock Uncorked are $30 and available through April 26 at the Lubbock Chamber office and prekindle.com. From March 12 – April 26 tickets may also be purchased at all Lubbock United Supermarkets, Market Streets and Amigos locations. Please note that your purchase receipt will serve as tickets for admission.

Tickets will be $40 at the door the day of Lubbock Uncorked. For more information call Christye Weld at the Chamber at (806) 761-7009 or email Christye.Weld@lubbockbiz.org.
