Re: Texas Tech University System Leadership to Speak at Lubbock Chamber Luncheon

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will host the State of the Texas Tech University System Luncheon on Tues., Sept. 24 at 11:30 a.m. at the Overton Hotel & Conference Center.

This luncheon will feature Texas Tech University System Chancellor / Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center President Tedd L. Mitchell, M.D., and Texas Tech University President Lawrence Schovanec, Ph.D.

The Lubbock business community will be brought up to speed on the latest developments, challenges, and opportunities facing one of Lubbock’s largest economic drivers, the Texas Tech University System. Attendees will receive an update on the latest enrollment figures as well as a comprehensive overview of the recently approved TTU School of Veterinary Medicine.

Seats to the luncheon presented by AimBank are $50 and Chamber members receive a discounted rate of $40. Reservations can be made at LubbockChamber.com or by calling (806) 761-7000. Reservation deadline is Tues., Sept. 17.

Tables and sponsorships are still available. To learn more contact Kyle Jacobson at Kyle.Jacobson@lubbockbiz.org.

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce represents almost 1,800 businesses and over 79,000 employees on the South Plains which accounts for over $2 billion in annual household earnings in Lubbock and West Texas. Since 1913 the Chamber, as a catalyst for business growth; a convener of leaders and influencers; and a champion for a stronger community, has served as a unified voice of business by actively advocating for a pro-jobs, pro-growth, pro-business climate.
