Re: Lubbock Chamber and MutualMed to Host Affordable Care Act (ACA) New Trump Proposals on ICHRA and EBHRA

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and MutualMed will host a virtual event on the New Trump Proposals on ICHRA and EBHRA, in part three of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) series, on Tues., April 28 at 10 a.m.

The event will be led by, Donna Wilkinson, General Counsel of Ameriflex. She will focus on ICHRA/ EBHRA and the tax savings of a FSA/Health Savings Accounts, as well as the virtues of a HRA and Cobra services among other compliance concerns.

Wilkinson joined Ameriflex as Senior Counsel in January 2018 and oversees Ameriflex’s legal activities and policies, as well as ethics, compliance and regulatory affairs. She also serves as the HIPAA Compliance Officer and travels to Washington, D.C. frequently to assist with Ameriflex and Accresa lobbying efforts and to meet with congressional members.

Prior to joining Ameriflex, she was Supervising Litigation Attorney at Barrett Daffin Frappier Turner & Engel, LLP (BDF). She also served as Counsel at The Marketing Arm, an Omnicom Company. Originally from North Carolina, Wilkinson moved to Dallas after graduating from law school where received a JD from North Carolina Central in 2012 and a BA degree in political science and public administration from Elon University in 2008.
