Re: Lubbock Chamber and MutualMed to Host Webinar on the Future of Association Health Plans and Other Health Care Policy Developments

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and MutualMed will host a virtual event with U.S. Chamber representatives on important health insurance information for employers, in part four of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) series, on Tues., May 5 at 10 a.m.

While health care issues surrounding COVID-19 are currently front and center, other health care policy issues and litigation continues. This includes Association Health Plans, which were halted in midstream more than a year ago by a Federal District ruling. Learn about the status of the appeal of this decision and other health care policy issues as well as the latest in health care from a COVID-19 standpoint.

The featured speakers from the U.S. Chamber will be Katie Mahoney - Vice President, Health Policy and Daryl Joseffer - Senior Vice President and Chief Counsel for Appellate Litigation.

Those interested in attending can register here.
