Re: Lubbock Chamber to Hold Two Webinars on April 14

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will hold two webinars on Tues., April 14. Each webinar will focus on important issues the business community is currently facing.

The first webinar, beginning at 10 a.m., is a partnership with MutualMed and will cover the lawsuit of the Affordable Care Act \(ACA\). The webinar will be led by Rob Henneke, General Counsel and Director of the Center for the American Future at the Texas Public Policy Foundation. Henneke will discuss the future of the Affordable Care Act, specifically what's next, if it is deemed unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

The second webinar, beginning at 2 p.m., will be led by a panel of three local business leaders as they discuss creative ways for businesses and customers to connect during the current COVID-19 business regulations. The panel will be led by Mike Hiebert, CanTex Roofing & Construction, LLC; Jeremy Waller, Picoso's Mexican Kitchen; and Shara Konechney, Piper Boutique.

Registration is required for each event. Visit LubbockChamber.com/events to register.

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce continues to be a resource to help manage and mitigate disruptions caused by the COVID-19 global health crisis. More information from health organizations, legislative updates, upcoming virtual events, and other guidelines that are useful to the Lubbock community can be found here.

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce represents almost 1,700 businesses and over 79,000 employees on the South Plains which accounts for over $2 billion in annual household earnings in Lubbock and West Texas. Since 1913 the Chamber, as a catalyst for business growth; a convener of leaders and influencers; and a champion for a stronger community, has served as a unified voice of business by actively advocating for a pro-jobs, pro-growth, pro-business climate.
