Re: Today's Economic Outlook with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will host the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas in a virtual event, presented by Happy State Bank, on Wed., Aug. 12 at 10 a.m.

Robert Kaplan, Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas President and CEO, will give an overview of today's economic climate and its effects on business at the local, state and federal levels. He will discuss how information gathered will be used to further develop sound monetary policies to grow economic opportunity for job creators and why now it is more important than ever. Kaplan will also discuss the CARES Act and its potential long-term implications of adding debt to the U.S. deficit.

Reservations are $25 and Chamber members receive a discounted price of $15. Visit LubbockChamber.com to reserve your seat or for more information contact Amy Marquez at (806) 761-7009 or by email at Amy.Marquez@lubbockbiz.org.

###

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce represents almost 1,700 businesses and over 79,000 employees on the South Plains which accounts for over $2 billion in annual household earnings in Lubbock and West Texas. Since 1913 the Chamber, as a catalyst for business growth; a convener of leaders and influencers; and a champion for a stronger community, has served as a unified voice of business by actively advocating for a pro-jobs, pro-growth, pro-business climate.
