THE 9TH ANNUAL

BROOKS COUNTY SKILLET FESTIVAL

- ❖ A unique festival focused on distinctive, artisan vendors
- ❖ A premier event showcasing Georgia's finest goods.

Event Date: October 19, 2019
Event Time: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Event Location: Brooks County Courthouse Lawn

Thank you for your interest in the Brooks County Skillet Festival, organized by the Quitman-Brooks County Chamber of Commerce. Attached you will find the 2-page vendor application required for all vendors. Application and payment are due by close of business on Monday, September 2nd. A $20 late fee will be assessed after that date. All applications will be reviewed by our organizing committee. Applications will not be processed without payment and photos of your merchandise. Approved vendors will be notified no later than Friday, September 27th. All non-approved applications will be returned with payment immediately following vendor selection.

The focus of the Brooks County Skillet Festival is on handmade, unique, and homegrown products. Please be advised that any vendor applications outside of these parameters may be denied and spaces are limited.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at (229) 263-4841, or by email at qbccskilletfestival@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Brooks County Skillet Festival Organizing Committee

REQUIRED AUTHORIZATION

In an effort to keep the Brooks County Skillet Festival of the highest quality, all vendors must sign ONE of the first five sections below AND the last section.

FINE ART/FOLK ART/CRAFTS/FARM VENDORS:

Fine art, folk art and craft booths may sell only homemade, hand-made or hand-crafted items. This may include pre-packaged food products such as jellies, jams, pickles, syrups, etc. or fresh produce grown locally. Vendors are responsible for ensuring that their products meet all federal, state and local regulations.

I agree to sell only handmade or hand-crafted items as described above.

NON-PROFIT VENDORS:

Booths registered as non-profit agencies may sell or give away items that are directly associated with their organization. Acceptable items include, but are not limited to pens, buttons, stickers, balloons and hats bearing or displaying your organization's logo. Publications may be sold if they are directly and primarily sponsored by your organization (i.e. cookbook). Food or drink items may NOT be given away or sold by non-profit vendors, excluding candy giveaways.

I agree that our non-profit agency will abide by the rules as described above.

FOOD/DRINK VENDORS:

Booths registered for food or beverage sales must ensure the cleanliness of their area before, during and after the Brooks County Skillet Festival. Non-Profit Vendors who intend to prepare and sell food onsite must register as a food/drink vendor and pay the assigned vendor fee. These rules apply to food that is meant to be consumed on-site.

I agree that our items will abide by the rules as described above.

OTHER VENDORS:

Any vendors that do not fit in one of the sections above must maintain the integrity of the festival and provide a detailed description of merchandise on the previous page. Bulk products, multi-level marketing sales, and wholesale merchandise purchased for resale do not meet the criteria set by the festival planning committee and are not permitted. Food or drink items may NOT be given away or sold by non-food vendors, excluding candy giveaways.

I agree to abide by the rules and criteria as described above.
