For Immediate Release

The Farmingdale Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce Joseph Garcia was selected as our Nassau Council of Chambers of Commerce 2019 Outstanding Businessperson of the Year.

Each year the Nassau Council of Chambers of Commerce encourages members to select an Honoree to receive this prestigious award. The Honoree must meet the following criteria:

- Active Member of the Chamber of Commerce
- Owns or manages a business located in the community
- Has made a significant contribution to the local economy, to the advancement of the Chamber and has made a meaningful and important contribution to the general welfare of the local community.

The Farmingdale Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors unanimously agreed that Joe fully meets and exceeds these criteria and is proud to recognize him as our 2019 Honoree.

Joseph Garcia is the Manager and Realtor of Weichert Realtors – Performance Homes. Joe spends much of his time recruiting, and training new agents, and finds this one of the most rewarding aspects of his career.

Joe is extremely community-focused. As a Chamber Board Member, he became heavily invested in forwarding the interests of Farmingdale and its business community. Since his election as President of the Farmingdale Chamber of Commerce in 2018, he has become even more involved, is proud to work with such a hard working Chamber Board, and to count many members, business owners, and managers in Farmingdale as friends.

Joe is also a member of the LI Board of Realtors Legislative and Realtor Political Action Committees, a NYS Association of Realtors Director and State Political Coordinator. In these roles he actively works to promote Fair Housing, Home Ownership and Professional Standards in his Industry.

Joe is married to his childhood sweetheart, Stephanie. They live in Farmingdale with their two sons, Dominick and Anthony.
