Nonprofit of the Week TRED Rome/Floyd Inc

TRED Rome/Floyd Inc. is a direct result of the local grassroots lobbying effort within the private and corporate sectors. TRED is Northwest Georgia's only advocacy group dedicated to the development and expansion of trails and is keenly aware of the economic and health benefits that quality trail systems provide to communities. TRED will continue to invest the necessary time, energy, and resources toward the betterment of these vital assets on a long-term basis.

Fiddlin' Fest Comes Back to Broad This Saturday

The 2019 Fiddlin' Fest Between the Rivers heads back to Broad this Saturday, October 12, featuring the classical sounds of bluegrass music on two live music stages along with activities along every block of the festival from 12pm-8pm. This event is free thanks to the generous support of the sponsors River City Bank, the Hampton Inn & Suites, and Downtown Rome businesses and property owners (BID).

There will be over ten different regional and local bluegrass bands recognized for their instrumental talent and musical energy. There will be two stages, the Cotton Block Stage in the 100 block and the 3rd & Broad Stage next to the new Lofts at 3rd & Broad, with music all day long. Musicians who enjoy the vintage tones of acoustic picking will be playing on both ends throughout the festival.

There will also be a tent with workshops and music in the 200 block, with artists such as Laney House and John Grimm.

Cars on Broad car show will feature cars from every decade! The Armuchee Ruritan Club who is presenting the show will judge and offer "Best of" awards in several categories.

There will be over 60 arts and crafts vendors set up in the vendor village located in the 100 block, offering an assortment of items such as quilting, tie-dye, pottery, door hangers, woodworking, and much more!

This year pony rides will be added, at $5 per ride. Pumpkins will also be available for picking and painting. A number of nonprofits will also have tables set up in the event area, including Public Animal Welfare Services and the Coosa River Basin Initiative.

For more information or to check our volunteer opportunities, please head to www.fiddlinfest.com or contact the Office of Downtown Development at 706.236.4520 or email mtreglown@romega.us.
