FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jody Fuller
Comedian. Speaker. Writer. Soldier
Grand Marshal at Opelika's Annual Christmas Parade
December 2 at 10 AM

OPELIKA, ALABAMA - (November 3) – Who will win the top prizes this year for the most creative floats? Area groups and organizations have just a few more days to put those finishing touches to their floats for the Annual Opelika Christmas Parade on Saturday, December 2, beginning at 10 a.m. in downtown Opelika. Jody Fuller who currently holds the rank of Major in the Reserves wears many hats these days including comedian, speaker, and writer and will serve as this year's Grand Marshal. The 2017 Grand Marshal is sponsored by Allstate-Prewett Insurance Group.

While the Christmas Parade Committee suggests that people arrive early for best parking, there will be special parking available on South Railroad Avenue between 8th and 9th Streets for the disabled. Permits can be picked up directly at the Chamber office located at 601 Avenue A by Thursday, November 30.

The parade will start at the corner of Avenue C and 9th Street, heading northwest up 9th to South Railroad Avenue. After a right turn at S. Railroad, the parade will travel one block to 8th Street and then right for two blocks to Avenue B. A left turn at Avenue B takes the parade over to 7th Street and S. Railroad Avenue.

For more information on the parade or parking, contact the Chamber at (334) 745-4861 or visit www.opelikachamber.com.
