FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Former AU Women's Golf Coach to Speak at Opelika Chamber's Women's Business Council

(Opelika, AL October 25, 2018) Former Women's Golf Head Coach at Auburn University, Kim Evans, will be the featured speaker at the upcoming Women's Business Council (WBC) Sports Presentation Series. This Opelika Chamber event will be held at the Robert Trent Jones at Grand National on November 5 from 11 am – 1 pm.

Evans coached 21 years as head coach for the AU Women's Team. She is one of the most successful coaches in Auburn University athletics history, leading the program to eight Southeastern Conference championships, 20 consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, and seven Top 10 finishes in 14 NCAA Championship appearances.

Even if you don't play the game of golf, come and hear this amazing golfer and learn the basics of golf so you can communicate with your family, friends and colleagues about the sport. This event includes lunch, the presentation, and a golf lesson if you so choose. Golf clubs will be provided for the lesson. Please visit www.opelikachamber.com to register or call 334.745.4861.

The WBC was formed to promote the participation and leadership of women at all levels in the workplace, the community and in government. The scope of the WBC is to develop programs that provide opportunities for women to learn and network as well as share their expertise with each other and to address the unique issues of women in business.
