2018

Now accepting nominations for 2018

Business of the Year Award

The Business of the Year Award is intended to honor that business which best exemplifies the spirit of free enterprise in the Wenatchee Valley. The winner should exemplify the rewards offered by the free enterprise system through risk-taking, innovation and strengthening of the community spirit. A qualified nominee:

- Is a for-profit business with principal ownership in the Wenatchee Valley or with substantial presence in the community.
- Is customer-driven.
- Provides civic leadership through giving to the betterment of the Wenatchee Valley.
- Reflects a culture in the workplace that encourages employees to be respected and engaged.
- Demonstrates innovative ways to support employees and works to facilitate their growth and development.

The nominee must be a member in good standing with the Wenatchee Valley Chamber of Commerce and must have been in business for at least five years.

Cornerstone Award—The Heart of the Chamber

The Cornerstone Award is intended to honor a business or individual who demonstrates the characteristics and values we hold most dear as an organization and community. The award recognizes those who are passionate about the Chamber and committed to its role in the community. The award winner demonstrates this passion for the Chamber by investing time and/or resources to carry out the Chamber's mission. The Cornerstone Award is intended to honor a business, organization, group or individual who strengthens our community and makes us proud to live, work and play here.

This award is nominated and voted on by the chamber staff.

Non-Profit of the Year Award

The Non-Profit of the Year Award is intended to honor an organization that sets a high standard for quality and demonstrates effective strategy, execution and community impact. The winner should meet the following criteria:

- Has accomplished significant results on behalf of the community.
- Supports and demonstrates the collaborative spirit through creative partnerships with other non-profits and/or various businesses and civic organizations.
- Exemplifies the spirit of volunteerism, altruism and respect.
- Inspires others by their example.

All nominees must be a member in good standing with the Wenatchee Valley Chamber of Commerce, financially stable, and show a strong return on donor investment.
