

Vietnamese Women in Leadership – Drive to Shine

AmCham Supplier Day 2018

Ho Chi Minh City October 4, 2018

Content

Greetings and Introduction

Admiring Vietnam Beauty Gender – The Female Leaders

Group Activity – the Female Leader you are most Proud of and their Traits of Success

Women in Leadership – Some Global and Vietnam Figures

Sharing of Willis Towers Watson's sponsoring Report on Women In Leadership in Asia Pacific

Admiration to the Vietnam Female and Female Leaders

Vietnam Rowing GOLD Medal, Asiad 2018

Admiration to the Vietnam Female and Female Leaders

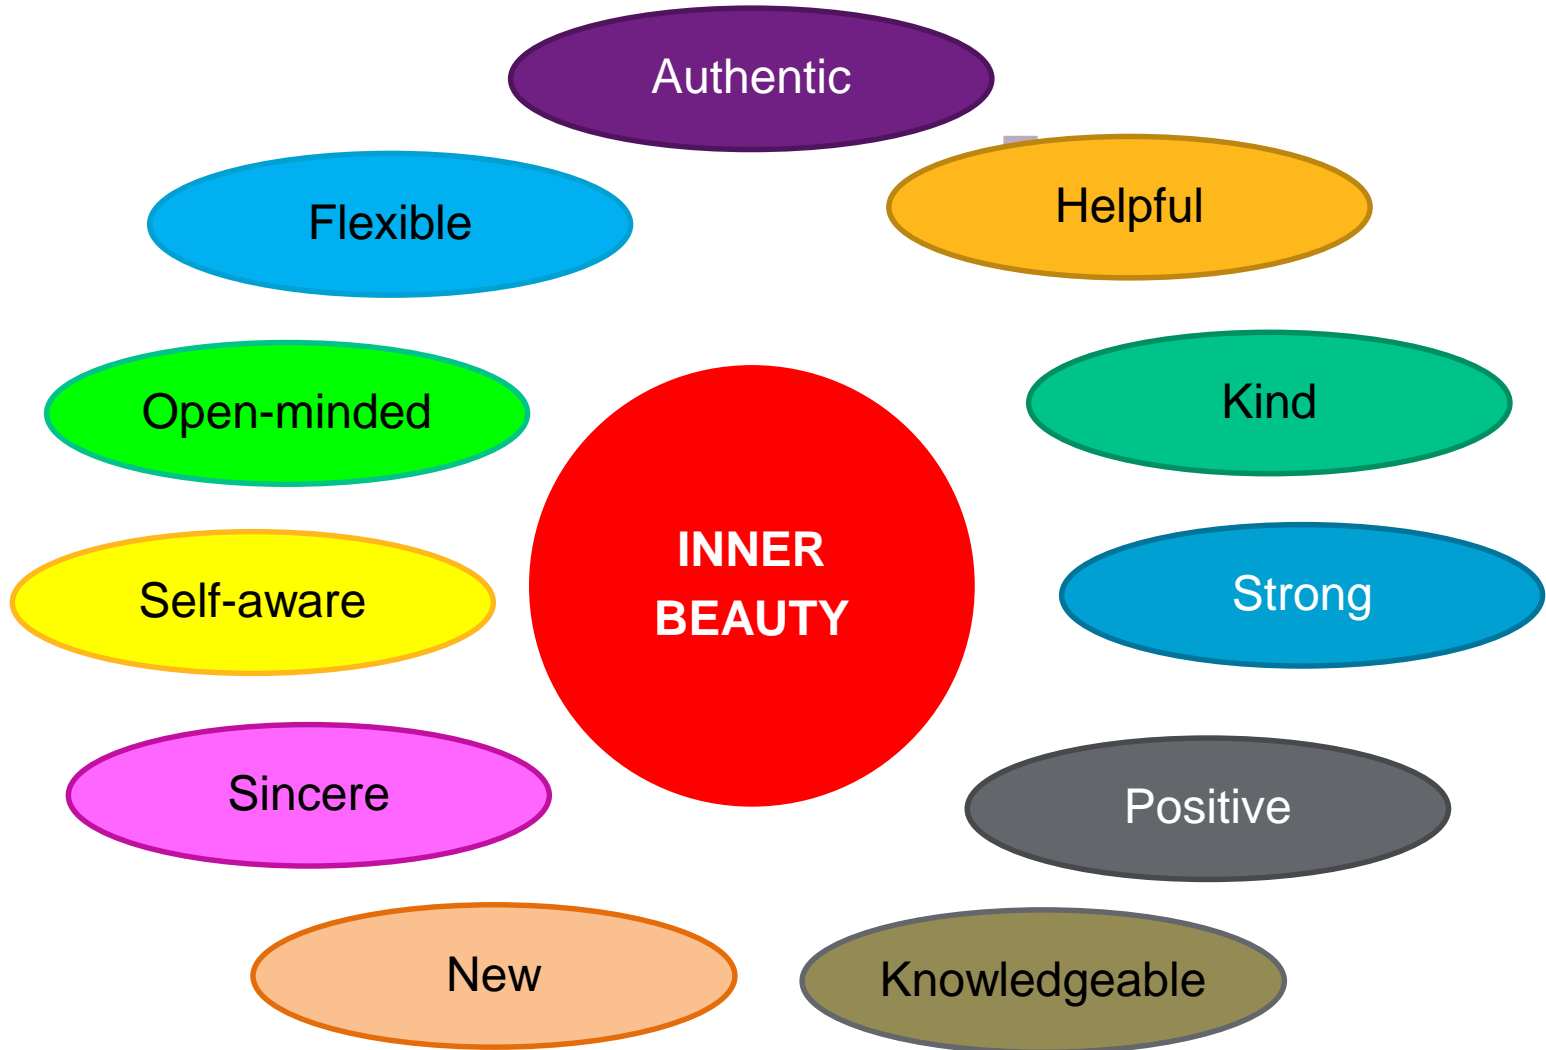

Nguyễn Phương Thảo, Gold Medal, International Biology Olympiad 2018

Are they beautiful?

Are they inspiring?

Are they Great Leaders?

The Vietnamese Female Leader you are most Proud of and their Traits of Success

Who are they?

What makes you proud of them?

Women in Leadership – some Global Figures

15% Board position worldwide,
3% increase since 2015
4% CEO/Chair position global

Deloitte

76% of people survey are gender-biased, tend to think men better suited for career and women for family

Harvard's Global online research study

64% Female labour participation rates in East Asia and the Pacific

Asian Development Bank

China: 74% female labour participation rate
Only 8% Board Representation

McKinsey Report "Women Matter: An Asian Perspective"

Women in Leadership – some Vietnam Figures

45.9% of Workforce

25 % of CEO or Board level positions
(1% Malaysia, 10% Singapore & 6 in Indonesia)

BCG

17.6% Board positions

Deloitte

Lowest female-to-male ratio in top management (1/8);
1/5.6, 2/2.8 Philippines and 1/2.2 in Thailand

Financial Times

“Women have fewer opportunities than men”

Financial Times Research, largest response rate of 30%

Sharing of Survey on Women In Leadership in Asia Pacific
A Report Sponsored by Willis Towers Watson

Thank you

