

Discover the Treasures of Paradise!

Our intriguing gold-rush past and vibrant present beckon visitors and newcomers to. Originally inhabited by Native Maidu communities, the Paradise Ridge saw an influx of settlers during the gold rush. In fact, the largest nugget ever found was discovered here on the Ridge.

The incorporated Town of Paradise, and unincorporated communities of Magalia and Stirling City are perched in the foothills of North East California's Sierra Nevada Mountains. The Ridge ranges in elevation from 2000 to 3570 feet. Paradise is located twelve miles east of Chico and ninety miles north of Sacramento.

The roads to Paradise are paved with spectacular sights. From Lake Oroville on Pentz Road to the "Little Grand Canyon" on Skyway, the Ridge is rimmed with breathtaking vistas. Enjoy your peace of the pines.

The Gold Nugget Museum, dedicated to preserving and protecting the Ridge's Gold Rush heritage, will satisfy history buffs.

Performing arts fans will find a plethora of entertainment at the Paradise Performing Arts Center, and Theatre on the Ridge, the longest running community theatre in the North State. Northern California Ballet attracts dancers from all over the world to train and perform with local youth. Paradise Symphony Orchestra presents several concerts each season. We even have a Seven-Plex Cinema!

Looking for something more athletic? The Ridge is home to a multitude of hiking, biking, and walking trails, hunting, fishing and boating opportunities and parks for picnics and relaxing. Golfers can tee off at Tuscan Ridge and Lava Creek Golf Courses, or bowl at Tall Pines Entertainment Center. Check our events calendar for tournaments, relays and adventures for the sports-minded.

Every month there's an event happening in Paradise that will be right up your alley - foodies, car buffs, artists, gardeners, hikers, bird watchers, music fans, history lovers, wine enthusiasts, runners, cyclists and more will find their heart's desire here! Join us for Party in the Park Music & Marketplace for twelve weeks in the summer and in October for Johnny Appleseed Days, California's longest running harvest festival.
