

Steve Farmer is an accomplished Executive Vice President of Brown & Brown Insurance, the 6th largest Insurance Brokerage in the Nation. With over 24 years of experience in the Insurance Industry, he currently leads the largest retail branch located at the company's headquarters in Daytona Beach, FL. Previously, Steve served as Sr. Vice President, Sales Leader for the Daytona Retail Operation, and Vice President/Producer with responsibilities for development and service of new and existing accounts.

In addition to his work at Brown & Brown, Steve actively serves on the Board of Directors for the Volusia/Flagler YMCA, the Daytona Beach Chamber of Commerce, the FUTURES Foundation, Oceanside Country Club and is a member of the Agents Advisory Council for AmTrust Financial.

Steve graduated from Florida State University with a B.A. in Economics in 1986. He is married to Carol Murphy Farmer and resides in Ormond Beach, FL. They have 3 sons, Ryan, Adam and Logan.