

DECREASE IN NUMBER OF GOODS-EXPORTING ENTERPRISES: APRIL 2020

Statistics Canada has released its April 2020 survey of goods-exporting enterprises.

- The number of exporting enterprises fell by 24.8% to 16,513 in April on a year-over-year basis.
- Small and medium-sized exporting enterprises accounted for nearly all the decline.
- Canadian businesses involved in exporting goods felt substantial impacts as a result of COVID-19.
- The number of exporters was down across all census metropolitan areas.
- International demand for manufacturing products falls.
- The number of enterprises exporting to Canada's principal trading partners continues to decline.

Full Report: Monthly Trade in Goods by Exporter – April 2020

EXPORTERS BY TYPE OF EXPORTS – April 2019 vs. April 2020

Source: Statistics Canada