

COVID CONSUMER SPENDING TRACKER – RBC ECONOMICS

RBC Economics has released its June 2020 Consumer Spending Tracker. RBC notes consumer spending was nearly back to normal by mid-June and there were signs that the transition to online spending is becoming entrenched.

Based on an analysis of anonymized RBC cardholder data, the RBC COVID Consumer Spending Tracker for June provides insight and multiple charts covering the following key trends in consumer spending:

- Brick and mortar retail stores.
- Entertainment
- Gasoline and automotive, transit, and travel
- Personal services and restaurants
- Online retail and services

Full Report: COVID Consumer Spending Tracker \(RBC Economics\)

YEAR OVER YEAR % CHANGE IN CONSUMER DEBIT & CREDIT CARD SPENDING

Source: RBC Data & Analytics, RBC Economics