

GDP BY INDUSTRY – APRIL 2020

Statistics Canada reports Real GDP declined by 11.6% in April. The agency notes, “April marked the first full month of measures put in place to slow the spread of COVID-19.”

All 20 industrial sectors saw GDP declines in April. Some of the more notable declines include:

- Accommodation and Food Services: -42.4%
- Manufacturing: -22.5%
- Retail Trade: -22.9%
- Construction: -22.9%
- Transportation and Warehousing: -23.1%
- Arts/Entertainment/Recreation: -25.6%

Statistics Canada notes its preliminary assessment for May 2020 indicates an increase in Real GDP of 3%.

Full Report: Real GDP By Industry \(April 2020\)

Real GDP (All Industries) – April 2020

billions of chained (2012) dollars – all industries

